Practical Beekeeping: Essex County Beekeepers' Association is offering a nine week course for beginning beekeepers and others with an interest in bees. Practical Beekeeping is an introductory level course designed to provide students, with no previous knowledge or experience with beekeeping, the necessary information and skills to keep honeybees and produce honey and beeswax. The course will include instruction on bee biology, required equipment, setting up bee hives, acquiring and installing bees, managing bees through the seasons, harvesting bee products, introductions to local bee supply dealers, a workshop on building bee equipment, and will culminate with one field session working with live honeybees. Check the ECBA Bee School web site for updates and a course syllabus.

Registration: Registration will open on Jan 9, 2019 and close on Jan 30, 2019.

Registrations postmarked after Jan 30 will not be considered.

To register, mail:

- page 2 of this form
- a check for the full amount and
- a stamped, self-addressed envelope to:

ECBA
Attn: Bee School,
PO Box 10
Topsfield, MA 01983-0010

Class size is limited and registration acceptance will be by lottery. Accepted students will be notified by email in early February. Registration fees are non-refundable. Checks for non-accepted registrations will be returned in the stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Classes will be held on Tuesday evenings, 7:00-9:00 pm, from Feb 19 through April 16 in the Beekeeping Building at the Topsfield Fairgrounds, Route 1, Topsfield MA. Snow cancellations will be based on North Shore Community College's announcement broadcast on WBZ AM 1030 and/or email notifications sent to all students on the day of the class.

Tuition: adult: $85; (Includes a single ECBA membership for 2019.)
youth: (12-18 years old): $50 and requires an accompanying adult registration.

Each registration includes one textbook, supplemental handouts, and materials.

Special needs: notify ECBA in writing at the address above not later than February 5, 2019.

For additional information please check the ECBA web site at www.essexcountybeekeepers.org or email us at beeschool@essexcountybeekeepers.org.
